

Stanley Ronda, Jr. Calligraphy Collection Inventory

The Stanley Ronda, Jr. Calligraphy Collection was donated to the Local History Department in February 2008 after his death. The collection consists of numerous poems, songs, speeches and other writings, which he copied out in beautiful calligraphy. There are also drawings of several churches in Toledo which he made. The last two folders include materials from his years on staff of the Toledo-Lucas County Planning Commission.

Stanley Ronda, Jr., the son of Stanley and Helen Dylla Ronda, was born July 30, 1929 and died February 4, 2008.
